Advising Clipboard

Welcome back!

We hope your spring break revitalized you for the second half of the spring semester! Please take a few minutes to read this newsletter thoroughly. It includes important information regarding scheduling, advising information, and graduation. As always, feel free to contact an adviser if you have any questions.

Scheduling is well underway, so begin planning now! Don't wait until the last minute to see an adviser -- schedule your appointment today!

ATTENTION: SPRING ADVISING HOURS

DROP-IN HOURS: Monday & Wednesday 1:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.; Friday 9:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m.

All other advising by Appointment ONLY

Please understand that advisers are unable to see students during appointment hours who DO NOT HAVE a scheduled appointment. Please respect your peers and your advisers by scheduling an appointment or coming during our regularly scheduled drop-in hours listed above. A quick question is something that should be addressed at drop-ins or via email. Advisers' time between appointments is spent entering contact reports, completing substitution requests, responding to student emails, committee and program planning, and other important administrative work.

Scheduling an appointment versus dropping-in:

Drop-in advising is a great option if you have questions that can be answered in a relatively short amount of time. Appointments are meant for issues that you know will take longer than 10 or 15 minutes. Examples of topics that could be covered in an appointment include:

1. Change of major or concurrent major paperwork
2. Long-range planning
3. Study abroad plans
4. Major/career exploration
5. Class schedules for the upcoming semester
6. Other topics that you want to discuss in detail and would like a designated timeframe to do so

A few important points about scheduling an appointment:

- Appointments are made in 30 minute blocks.
- If you are assigned a specific adviser, you must schedule an appointment with that adviser.
- You can see any adviser during drop-in advising hours.

Summer Advising Hours:

Remember when you went through summer freshmen orientation (now called New Student Orientation-NSO)? Part of our advising responsibilities in the summer includes afternoon NSO advising sessions. This means that we will have limited availability from the middle of May through the middle of July. We will be sending more information about our summer advising hours towards the end of the spring semester.

Late Drop Deadline

The deadline to late drop a course for this semester is Friday, April 11, 2014 BEFORE midnight. This deadline is FIRM. If late-dropping a class sounds like an option you want to consider, make an informed decision about it. Meet with your professor to accurately assess your progress in a course before you late-drop it. Discuss with your adviser the possible consequences of late-dropping a class, such as the amount of late drop credits available to you and how it may affect your full-time status (which can, in turn, affect your student aid and/or health insurance). If you determine that late-dropping a course is in your best interest, you can late-drop through eLion at <https://elion.psu.edu/> or at the Registrar's Office.

Withdrawals

Those who are experiencing significant difficulties this spring may consider withdrawing for the semester. The last day to withdraw from the Spring 2014 semester is Friday, May 2, 2014. After this date, no student will be permitted to withdraw. You can easily process a withdraw using eLion at <https://elion.psu.edu>, but it is highly recommended you talk to your assigned adviser about your plans first.

Summer Scheduling

Are you thinking about taking a few credits this summer? Summer scheduling for all students began on February 4th -so schedule now! Head to www.programs.psu.edu/summer14 for a full listing of summer courses.

Not sure if you can commit to a resident instruction course at University Park? You could consider taking courses through the World Campus or a Commonwealth campus. When viewing courses on the Schedule of Courses website, be sure to select "World Campus" or the appropriate Commonwealth campus to see what is offered.

Transferring Courses from Other Institutions

Summer is often a convenient time for students to complete courses at an institution near their homes. If you're thinking about taking a summer course elsewhere, please take the following steps to make sure the class will transfer to Penn State:

- Go to: https://www.admissions.psu.edu/my_admissions/tas/.
- Follow the instructions.
- Print out the transfer evaluation form from the Admissions Web site for verification.

After you complete the course:

Have an official copy of your transcript from the college/university you attended sent directly to the Penn State Admissions Office. When Admissions receives the transcript, they will post the course(s) to your Penn State transcript.

Fall Scheduling

Fall scheduling has begun, so please review your audit and consider the degree requirements that you still need to satisfy. Below are a few scheduling tips to keep in mind:

- CRIM 250W is required for many of the 400 level CRIM courses.
- CRIM 250W must be scheduled and successfully completed before you are permitted to complete a departmental internship for credit.
- Strive for some balance in your schedule. In other words, don't load up on 400-level CRIM classes if you can help it.

Additional Note:

Courses within the CRIM major are designated "CRIM." Although you may see designations of "CRIMJ" listed on the audit, this is incorrect! Your audit may also incorrectly list CRIM 250W as CRIM 240W and CRIM 430 as CRIMJ230. The audit will be corrected, but it may take some time to do this. So in the meantime, remember to look for "CRIM" courses only.

As always, please feel free to contact your adviser about any scheduling concerns.

Internship Central

Summer Internship Information

If you haven't already contacted Cynthia Meyers (cab408@psu.edu), the internship coordinator, about completing a summer internship, you will need to postpone your plans until the fall semester. For those students who have submitted their plan to Cynthia, the remaining deadline date for summer internships is as follows:

April 9 Placements should be finalized by this date. Email Cynthia Meyers (cab408@psu.edu) with your internship site placement.

Funding is Available for Summer Internships

One of the goals of the Department of Sociology and Criminology is to involve undergraduates in internship opportunities. Accordingly, The College of the Liberal Arts and the department have modest funds to provide financial assistance to students who participate in internships. Preference for funding is given to students with demonstrated need and to students completing the internship for academic credit. If you're interested in applying for these enrichment funds, go to the Career Enrichment Network website at laus.la.psu.edu/network and click on Enrichment Funds to apply.

Fall Internship Information

If you're considering a fall internship, the internship dates are planned for August 25–December 12, 2014. The following are key deadline dates:

March 7 Indicate your intent to complete a Fall internship by this date by emailing Cynthia Meyers (cab408@psu.edu) to let her know your plans.

May 30 Letters must be sent to three possible internship sites by this date. Send an email to Cynthia Meyers with the names of the three sites.

July 11 Placements should be finalized by this date. Send an email to Cynthia Meyers with your internship site placement. At that point you will receive instructions on how to proceed. Cynthia will also be in touch with your internship site supervisor with information and instructions about your internship duties and activities.

For more information about the internship process, take a look at this section of the departmental Web site: sociology.la.psu.edu/undergraduate/internships. Your advisers are available to discuss the internship process, how an internship fits into your academic plan, potential sites, and answer questions you have about internships.

In the Spotlight.....

Did you know? – Judge Lunsford

Judge Bradley P. Lunsford was honored by the State College Rotary with the Paul Harris Fellow award. He accepted the award on behalf of all of the members of the Centre County Child Protection and Safety Collaborative as well as the members of his Advisory Committee of the Centre County Children's Advocacy Center. Judge Lunsford's current project is the creation of a Juvenile Treatment Court. In his spare time, he plays drums for the modern country/classic rock group AC Express.

Student Spotlight – Maryn O’Neil

Internship: Department of State Bureau of Near Eastern Affairs

I was highlighted in the August 2013 student spotlight in which I discussed my adventures in Morocco during my junior year spring semester. However, Morocco is not the only adventure I have experienced in recent months. I was lucky enough to be selected to participate in an internship with the Bureau of Near Eastern Affairs in the office of the Middle Eastern Partnership Initiative (MEPI), which offers assistance, training, and support to groups and individuals striving to create positive change in society. MEPI works in 18 countries and territories, partnering with civil society organizations (CSOs), community leaders, youth and women activists, and private sector groups to advance their reform efforts. MEPI’s approach is bottom-up and grassroots, responding directly to local interests and needs. MEPI has been active in the MENA region since 2002, contributing over $600 million to more than 1,000 grant projects administered by our offices in Washington, D.C. and the region. Specifically, I was placed in the Grants Management division where I aided the team in the technical side of monitoring the implementation and success granting of awards. I was exposed to different types of awards which included supporting democracy builders, empowering women, inspiring youth, and fostering economic opportunities in the Middle East and North African regions. In addition to the various roles I took on as an intern within my division, I was also privy to numerous out of office experiences which were equally educational. I attended numerous speeches with regard to foreign policy, specifically in my region of interest and was given multiple opportunities to network with others who were further along in their ultimate career goals, many of whom I wish to emulate.

I am confident that my experience abroad is what solidified my candidacy for this internship. I have heard numerous times the importance of global exposure in the job place, for many reasons you might not typically consider. Studying abroad gave me the edge in the application process and prepared me for work experience.

Get Involved!

The Justice Association

The Justice Association is involved in many activities throughout the academic year, including hosting guest speakers, field trips, and community service opportunities. Guest speakers of various interests within the field of criminal justice give presentations during meetings. The areas of interest include: state/local law enforcement, various federal agencies, state and private law firms, corrections, and sociological research/academia. Examples of past guest speakers include a U.S. postal inspector, U.S. assistant attorney, state correctional institute assistant superintendent, and prison counselor, as well as special agents from NCIS, the FBI, and the CIA. The Justice Association takes part in fundraising for THON, and other community service opportunities, such as Big Brothers Big Sisters of Centre County and Centre County Youth Center (CCYC). Meetings are held each month in 203 Willard. The next meeting will be on April 13. Contact President William Mott at wdm5045@psu.edu if you have any questions.

Information for Graduating Seniors

Commencement

Seniors, you're in the home stretch. The graduation ceremony for the College of the Liberal Arts is scheduled for Saturday, May 10, 2014 at 6:00 p.m. in the Bryce Jordan Center. If your family and friends ask about needing tickets to attend, please tell them that tickets are not required for the ceremony. However, we recommend you and your supporters arrive early to find your seats. Any last minute questions about the ceremony? Be sure to check this Web site:

<http://commencement.psu.edu/future.html>.

Department Reception for Graduates

You've worked hard, and it's time to acknowledge the end of your undergraduate career at Penn State and the beginning of the next phase in your lives. We'd like to celebrate with you and your families, so please plan to join us at our departmental reception before the graduation ceremony, on the lawn in front of the library; the time will be announced soon. Faculty and staff will be on hand to congratulate you and wish you well. Enjoy some food, fellowship, and fun before we head to the Bryce Jordan Center for the ceremony.

You're Invited:

What: Departmental Reception

Who: SOC and CRIM graduating seniors and their families

When: Saturday, May 10, 2014 - Time and location will be announced soon!

Hope to see you there!

August 2014 Graduation

If August is when you plan to graduate, please activate your intent to graduate from May 12 - June 20, 2014. Activating your intent to graduate is very simple and very important! If you don't activate your intent, we have no way of knowing that you're planning to graduate, and your audit will not be checked to make sure you have met all the requirements for graduation. Activate your intent to graduate as soon as the summer session starts via eLion at <https://elion.psu.edu/>. Summer commencement will be held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, August 16, 2014, in the Bryce Jordan Center.

*Remember if you have been approved to walk in May graduation, but are taking summer classes to finish requirements, this applies to you.

Announcing the 2014 Criminology Student Marshal!

Every year a Student Marshal is selected to represent all graduating seniors in Criminology during commencement. We are proud of all who were nominated and are pleased to announce that Juliana Wade has been selected to serve as the 2014 CRIM Student Marshal. Student Marshals must select a Faculty Marshal to accompany them during commencement, and we're happy to announce that Juliana has asked Professor Caren Bloom to take on this role. Part of the honor of a Student Marshal is recognition in the commencement bulletin and during the program, as well as attending a special reception held earlier that day.

After graduation, Juliana plans to travel throughout several European countries prior to committing to full-time employment or graduate school. She is hoping to secure employment in a federal agency or would like to attend graduate school studying Occupational/Physical Therapy, Counseling Psychology, or earn her Juris Doctor degree.

Congratulations, Juliana!!!
