Prior Employment:

Staff Attorney,

MidPenn Legal Services
1995-2002

As a staff attorney I concentrated my practice in family law which included advice and representation in custody, child support, divorce and other family law matters. I also conducted pro se custody clinics and provided community education in a number of areas including programs in high schools, to shelter staff and residents, CLE programs for attorneys.

I also provided representation and advice in special education, housing, consumer, employment compensation and other civil legal matters.

Domestic Violence Concentration under Federal DOJ Grants: 1997-2002

Under a DOJ STOP Grant, MidPenn and I were contracted to provide representation to domestic violence victims in all civil legal matters stemming from the abuse. This included participation in various county task forces and groups aiming to reduce domestic violence and increase system response.
