

Diego Gudino-Martinez

Education –

- Pennsylvania State University: 2024-Present: PhD in Sociology (current)
- Indiana University: 2022-2024: Master's in Public Affairs
- IUPUI: 2020-2021: Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership
- Purdue University: 2015-2019: (transferred)

Work Experience:

- Graduate Research Assistant (Penn State University): Fall 2024 - Current
  - Conduct Research utilizing quantitative methods. Assist with various funded collaborative research projects. Specifically, created, validated, and evaluated research instruments relevant to projects.
    - Research Assistant for Dr. Jennifer VanHook (Sociology)
- Graduate Research Assistant (Indiana University): Spring 2023- Spring 2024
  - Conduct Research utilizing qualitative methods. Assist with various funded collaborative research projects. Specifically, create, validate, and evaluate research instruments relevant to projects.
  - Assist with literature reviews, qualitative research, mixed-method research, and project support.
  - Assist Dr. Camarena with funding research projects involving various faculty at the O'Neill School of Public Affairs from ASU (Arizona State University) and NIU (Northern Illinois University). Arizona State University, Northern Illinois University, and University of Illinois-Chicago
    - Research Assistant for Dr. Leonor Camarena (O'Neill/SPEA)
- Medical Document Translator (Indiana University): Spring 2015 - Present
  - Perform Spanish-to-English and English-to-Spanish translations of medical and dental research protocols, HIPAA-complaint consents, and other research forms.
- Contract Grant Writer (Indiana University): 2021-2022
  - Supported writing federal grant proposals for Indiana University Schools of Medicine and Dentistry researchers. Worked closely with researchers to develop grant sections, identify citations, improve narrative clarity, and format to align with federal requirements for Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) proposals.
- Research Assistant (IUPUI): 2020

- Developed literature review for HRSA grant. Learned to complete forms for annual and quarterly reports and other relevant metric-based tasks related to HRSA grants.
  - Research Assistant for Dr. Anubhuti Shukla, BDS, MHA and Dr. Armando Soto DDS, MPH
- In-Person Interpreter for Visiting Professors (Purdue Industrial Engineering School): 2019
  - Translated for Peruvian visiting professors with the goals of forming industry connections and facilitating future student exchange.

Research Project Work:

O’Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs (IU) & School of Public Affairs (ASU)

Graduate Research Assistant – IU

PI: Dr. Leonor Camarena (IU) Co-PI: Dr. Mary K. Feeney (ASU)

Research Team Member, supported the project through population and sample frame development, interview design, interview note taker, site observation data collection, development of codebook, and assisting with analyzing qualitative data with NVivo 14.

Project:

Public Libraries in American Communities (PLAC) - RA funding through this project

Volunteer experience:

- La Plaza Summer Discovery Program: 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019
  - Ran a computer science module in the La Plaza Summer Discovery program.
  - Named Hispanic Youth Leader. Recognizing service, academic achievement, and leadership based on this work. Designed and implemented a computer science intro camp to mentor students to build their computers (First-time computer owners).
    - Received the McMiracle Elizabeth Thompson Youth Award, created to honor and empower middle and high school students who have made a significant impact on the lives of others for this work.

Technical Skills/Languages:

- Proficient User: Python, C suite, Stata, R, Matlab, & Excel
- Intermediate User: NVivo 14
- Languages: English and Spanish as a native speaker. Conversational Portuguese.